ment that marked the struggle of yesterday.

The Phillies made a threat in their half of the eighth because Tris Speaker again had trouble with the sun and let Cravath's single bound over his head, the runner pulling up at third with a three-bagger to his credit.

Two were out at the time and the fans were not inclined to take the situation seriously until Luderus, who seemed to have found his batting eye at last, slammed out his third single of over the plate. Ducey went in to run and for Luderer and further complicated the situation by seeing a white flag waved by the umpire. He had to wait a second, but his fast liner went directly to the Boston pitcher, who gamely knocked it down and threw the Phillie Phanatic left fielder out at first.

Phillies Get Men On.

In both the first and second innings today Philadelphia had runners on second base with only one out and in neither case were they advanced as far as third. In the first Blanton's ball left at the keystone sack out, while Cravath and both struck out. In the second Luderus led off with a single was sacrificed to second by Whitted and left there. The lack of driving power at the psychological moment has been the deciding factor against the Phillies. While the score of games stands three to one against them, the Phillies have scored six runs to their opponents' eight.

Boston was lucky to score its first run in the Red Sox's first inning. In the third inning, Cady laid down a bunt that ordinarily would have been an easy out, but Chalmers, in the box for the Phillies, slipped as he went for the ball. Cady walked, and began his run. Until Cady was safe at first base, another sacrifice Barry to third and Cady to second and the former scored when Hooper was credited with an infield hit or a ball that Chalmers thought he fielded. The Sox were now in a position to make enough runs in this one inning to decide the contest, but their attack failed. Scott popped up and foul and Speaker was out on an easy play.

The winning run came over in the sixth when Hoblitzel singled and raced home on Duffy Lewis' screaming drive to the left field fence. Lewis had dove in the first run earlier in the inning and he was easily the hero of the crowd today. His defensive work in the field this afternoon was little short of wonderful. He was credited with six pitouts and each chance that came his way. He did not make a mistake. At the fence one moment, he was dashing toward the infield at another to snatch

SHRINERS PLANNING FOR BIG OCCASION

EFFORT WILL BE MADE TO BRING HELLA PATROL AND BAND HERE.

At an enthusiastic meeting last night local Shriners practically completed their plans for Shriners' day at the Cotton Palace, Monday, November 8, which they intend to make one of the greatest events of the exposition. Invitations have been sent to every temple in Texas and indications are that several hundred Shriners will be here.

It was decided last night to send a committee to Dallas and extend a special invitation to the Nobles of Tella Temple to send both their band and patrol here for the occasion. Many Waco Masons belong to Hella Temple and feel that it is not too much to ask that the celebrated band and patrol make a visit to Waco. C. H. Anderson is acting chairman of the committee, which will be appointed at once.

Not only have the Wacoans invited the Texas nobles, but they have extended a cordial invitation to the imperial council to have representatives here. It is something unique for Shriners where there is no temple to give such an elaborate entertainment as will take place at the Cotton Palace, and on that account a large attendance is anticipated.

Headquarters will be established at the new Masonic temple, Eighth and Washington, for the entertainment of the visiting Shriners. Every effort will be made to have all Shriners who are in the habit of coming to Waco here for the occasion.

The committees appointed are as follows:

Finance—W. W. Seley, J. H. Lockwood, L. E. Bain, Dan Morris, Jr., and J. W. Saunders.

Parade—S. S. Fleming, J. H. Little and John C. Davis.

Dance—W. J. Neale, Ross Padgett and T. F. Bush.

Reception—W. M. Cameron, Clint Padgett and Fred Mallender.

Publicity—H. M. Baine, W. F. Quebe and James R. Wright.

Decorations—T. J. Wolfe, M. M. Scott and E. P. Hunter.

Refreshments—J. W. Yonts, Henry Bell and J. B. Penn.

Automobile—M. T. Bell, Duro Wood and D. F. Beaman.

Man Pardoned by Governor Colquitt Given Nine Years

Clarence Dudley entered pleas of guilty to three charges of forgery in the Fifty-fourth district court. In one of them he was given a five-year sentence and in each of the others two years. Dudley was sentenced to the penitentiary some years ago for robbery, being given twenty-five years. After serving seven years he was pardoned by former Governor Colquitt.

BRYAN MEETING ENDORSED

Winter Tourist Rates Granted Is the Report of the Transportation Committee—Mayor Riggins Explains Sewage Disposal Plant Plans for the City.

An address by Mayor Riggins, explaining his plan for a sewage disposal plant, satisfying reports of chairmen of all the special and standing committees of the league, an address by W. J. Neale on the possibilities of Waco as a winter resort, and a presentation of the work and aims of the Brazos navigation and flood prevention meeting being held in Bryan were some of the features that marked the general meeting of the Young Men's Business League last night, the first under the new administration which went into office as a result of the election held at the last general meeting.

First Vice President Perry Duncan presided at the meeting, in the absence of President W. W. Naman, who is attending the river meeting in Bryan.

Following receipt of a communication signed by more than thirty resident employees of the M. K. & T., stating that a movement was on foot among some trainmen now laying over at Belle Mead, to change their place of lay-over to Fort Worth, and that the change had been practically arranged to take effect Oct. 15, a special committee, composed of J. M. Penland, W. V. Crawford, F. E. Goodman, John Wright, William Reese, F. L. Booth, Senator A. R. McCollum and Perry Duncan, was appointed to take whatever action they deem necessary to protect the interests of Waco. The communication from the employees of the road said that the change would force them to move their families from Waco against their wishes, and that those who were working for the change were engineers and conductors. The committee, which will be appointed at once, was asked to take action.

It was stated that the matter of designating the places of lay-over for train crews rested with the employees' organizations, but that Vice President Webb would have to approve the change before it could be effective. The special committee will take the matter up today with Vice President Webb, to induce him to disapprove the change as a matter of policy of the road in carrying out its contract with the city of Waco. Rumors for the last week that such a change was being investigated by President Naman and some of the directors and were denied at the Katy offices here.

Letter from Katy Men.
Following communication which was presented to the league from the Katy employees last night, and which produced the action stated above:

"Waco, Texas, Oct. 12, 1915.
To the Young Men's Business League, Goldstein-Miguel Co., Sanger Bros., S. M. Hamilton, Esq.; William Reese, Esq.; Waco Morning News, Waco, Tex.
Gentlemen—Since the M. K. & T. railway moved their terminal from Hillsboro to Bell Mead, it has been understood by the men working on the road out of Bell Mead and by the company that Bell Mead was the home terminal.

"When this change was made from Hillsboro to Bell Mead, many of us located in Waco with the intention of remaining there permanently, or at least maintaining there kept their terminal at Bell Mead. The lay-over and extra boards for engineers, firemen, conductors and brakemen have been made tained at Bell Mead since the change. Now, for several months past there has been a movement agitated by a minority of the regular men (engineers and conductors) and influential and materially aided, we are advised, by the Fort Worth board of trade, to move this home terminal and lay-over and extra board from Bell Mead to Fort Worth. At any rate, early last week the representatives of the men working out of Bell Mead and Fort Worth met in Dallas and decided to move these lay-over and extra boards from Bell Mead to Fort Worth effective Oct. 15, 1915, notwithstanding the protest made by the men living at Bell Mead.

"Now, this unnecessary change will cause us all to move to Fort Worth, which we do not want to do, and we are appealing to you gentlemen to take this matter up with Mr. Webb in an effort to have him disapprove of the change. Please understand this is not a local matter and can only be handled directly with Mr. Webb or his assistant, Mr. Elliott.

"We desire, also, to advise this change was not made by us, but by representatives of the men, but must be approved and signed by the company before being effective. The company having the right to disapprove of any agreement offered by the men when the same is against the policy of the company.

"At this time, for reasons best known to ourselves, we respectfully request to withhold our thirty-odd signatures to this paper, but desire to say we are well and favorably known to the above addressed parties, and have business relations with all of them and many more in Waco.

"Hoping you gentlemen can and will get this change proposition annulled before it becomes effective, we beg to remain, Respectfully,

"THIRTY-ODD RESIDENT EMPLOYEES OF THE KATY."

Sewage Plant Discussed.

Assurance that plans for a sewage disposal plant for the city would be proved adequate before being approved was given by Mayor J. W. Riggins, who presented a mass of data and information resulting from his eighteen months of investigation into the question of sewage disposal in use by American and foreign cities. Mayor Riggins contended that a plant of adequate efficiency and capacity could be built for $75,000 as originally planned by him, and stated that some of the best engineers of the country had been consulted in preparing this low estimate.

Other cities which were spending much larger amounts for constructing sewage disposal plants, he said, were doing so to advertise their own, and were rebuilding their entire sewage system, as well as building far beyond their needs. The low estimate for Waco was made possible, according to the mayor, by arrangements to use the present sewer system of the city and building the plant on the unit system to care for the city's present needs and so as to be easily added to when the population increases. He invited all the members of the league to be present at a meeting at the city hall Friday night, when he will make an address presenting the matter in full.

Tickets to Hippodrome.
Free tickets to the Hippodrome theatre good next Monday and Tuesday nights, were distributed to the members present last night through the courtesy of J. P. Everett, manager of the Hippodrome. Monday and Tuesday night's performance will be set aside by the theatre management especially in honor of the Y. M. B. L. The famous comedienne, Marie Dressler, will be seen in one of the six-act "Tilly" comedies. On motion of J. M. Penland, a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Everett for his courtesy to the members of the league.

Winter Resort Rates.
That the granting of special resort rates to Waco for the winter seasons by the railroads presented a great opportunity for developing a dormant asset of the city was the statement of W. J. Neale, who was asked to address the

A Single Application Banishes Every Hair

(The Modern Beauty.)
Here is how any woman can easily and quickly remove objectionable, hairy growths without possible injury to the skin: Make a paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after two or three minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is a painless, inexpensive method and, excepting where the growth is unusually thick, a single application is enough. You should, however, be careful to get genuine delatone.

meeting following the reading of a report from Frank J. Trau, chairman of the transportation committee of the league, that a rate of one and one-third fare from all points in the southwest to Waco, allowing a stop in the city of six months, had been granted by the railroads. This is the same rate enjoyed by Galveston and Marlin, and is applicable to travel originating on any railroad in the southwest.

Mr. Neale stated that the asset thus created came almost out of the blue sky, and would prove a great benefit to the city. He said that the city's climate, splendid paved streets and roads, and parks, furnishing suitable places for vacations, would draw large crowds. He said that the closing of the dam below the city so as to form a lake here would also prove a drawing feature. He urged the Y. M. B. L. to inaugurate an extensive publicity campaign, spreading the information of Waco's advantages as a winter resort throughout the territory covered by the special rate. He said that Mr. Neale's remarks, which were received with great applause, a motion by James Hays Quarles that a special committee be named by the board of directors to carry out Mr. Neale's suggestions was passed unanimously.

Navigation Work Favored.
Harry M. Baine, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was called upon to present the work of the Brazos Navigation and flood prevention meeting at Bryan, following Mr. Neale's remarks, which were received with great applause, a motion by James Hays Quarles that a special committee be named by the board of directors to carry out Mr. Neale's suggestions was passed unanimously.

Upon motion of James Hays Quarles, the league pledged its hearty support any action that is taken by the Bryan meeting, and a telegram was sent to this effect to W. W. Seley, chairman of the Waco party at Bryan.

J. D. Willis asked the co-operation of the league on behalf of the alumni of Baylor University in celebrating the homecoming of that institution, which will be held November 25 and 26. Mr. Willis stated that the University desired the Y. M. B. L. to assist in the publicity of the event, and to induce merchants of the city to decorate their stores. He said it was planned to have all former students of Baylor to return for a visit to their alma mater during the two days, and that many special features for their entertainment were being arranged.

A. D. Adams made a short speech on behalf of the traveling men's special train which will be run to the State Fair, October 23.

C. W. Marre, principal of the West End Grammar school, asked the co-operation of the business men in the effort of the teachers of the school to give the pupils practical knowledge of the history and business interests of this town.

Finance in Good Shape.
R. E. L. Montgomery, chairman of the finance committee, presented a detailed report showing that the financial affairs of the league were in good shape. Treasurer L. E. Bain presented his report, agreeing with that of the finance committee.

That plans were being perfected for a canvass of the business men to raise additional funds for the important work of the publicity committee was the report of Joe Fee, chairman.

That winter tourist rates identical to those granted to Galveston and Marlin had been granted to Waco was the report of Frank J. Trau, chairman of the transportation committee. He reported that information to this effect had been transmitted to Ralph McLendon, chairman of the publicity committee of the Cotton Palace, association, the rates to go into effect November 1 and extend to May 1.

Mr. Trau also reported the success of the efforts fostered by the committee to restore double daily service on the International & Great Northern, and that the matter of running a motor car on the Cotton Belt from Waco to Hamilton was being considered by John P. Lehan, general freight and passenger agent of the road.

Dr. E. C. Brannon presented the report of the entertainment committee for Fiske Wright, chairman, who was not present. He detailed the entertainment given at the recent nurses' convention held here, and reported a balance on hand after all expenses were paid.

Cotton Palace Decorating.

Preston A. Weathered, chairman of the civic improvement committee, reported that the time of his committee was taken up with an effort to provide special and exceptional decorations for the Cotton Palace this year. He said that it was the aim of his committee to develop the carnival spirit during the exposition to extend to the downtown streets, and that their efforts were met with encouragement from the merchants and business men. He also reported that his committee was working in co-operation with the women's club of the city to obtain the visit to the city of Miss Maude Van Buren, chairman of the junior department of the American Civic association.

Forrest E. Goodman, chairman of the agricultural and immigration committee, reported that activities during the past month had been devoted to an effort to secure increased agricultural and livestock displays at the Cotton Palace this year.

He also reported that his committee, carrying out instructions of the league, had presented the matter of organizing girls' canning clubs in the city to the county commissioners, and had been received favorably, although it seemed certain that the matter would be postponed until after January 1 on account of financial reasons.

Upon motion of Walton Taylor, the girls' canning club movement received the endorsement of the league.

Roads Nearing Completion.

That the improved roads of the county are rapidly nearing completion and that city streets are being extended to connect with them was the report of J. C. Killgore, chairman of the good roads committee, who stated that his committee had had the thorough co-operation of Street Commissioners John Dollins and County Engineer R. J. Windrow. He reported that the Dallas, Marlin and South Third street roads would be finished within the next two weeks.

"CARDUI IS A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Boyd Lady in Telling of Her Experience With Cardui. Recommends
It To Others.

Boyd, Ala.—"About six years ago," writes Mrs. Emma McBride of this place, "I got run down in health. My weight went down to less than 140, and I am a large woman, and have large bones. My usual weight is much more. I got a very bad complexion and was dark under the eyes."

"I kept getting worse all the time; would be so very nervous that at times, I'd have nervous chills. Couldn't rest well at night, for some time. I suffered great pain in stomach or lower abdomen, hips, left side and back, and also had a dull headache. I could hardly do my work at all, could only drag around all the time, and finally for three weeks I was confined to my bed and suffered great agony all the time."

"Mrs. — of Boyd recommended that I take Cardui. I began using it and when I started on the second bottle I could see that I was getting a whole lot better. After using the third bottle I felt I didn't need any more medicine whatever. I never had another nervous spell after taking the Cardui. It's a splendid tonic. I do hope women suffering as I did will use it."

If you suffer as this lady did, try Cardui, the woman's tonic. For sale by all druggists.

SUL ROSS MOTHERS' CLUB MEETS ON THURSDAY

On Thursday afternoon the Sul Ross Mothers' club will hold session. Members are requested to attend. This will be at the school building.

CHANGE OF HOSTESS FOR THE ALPHAS

In the calendar, members will take note that the Alphas met this afternoon with Mrs. Allen rather than with Mrs. Moore, as was first announced. Mrs. Moore has found her removal from the city sooner than was anticipated.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS FOR SAINT PAUL'S GUILD

This afternoon opens a new season of good work for Saint Paul's Guild. Members are reminded of this and requested to be present. Election of officers and other business is first, after which a cordial invitation is extended to all women of the parish, especially those who have entered since the Guild adjourned in May. A social session will be held.

BEAUNOTS ELECT THREE NEW MEMBERS

In the call session with Miss Alta Harrison on Tuesday morning, the Beaunots attended to several matters of business. The absence in Michigan of the president, Miss Ella Flewellyn, for three months caused Miss Laurine Gay's consent to serve as president pro tem. The Misses Salie Morse, Josephine Fosse and Ruby McClain were selected new members. It was decided to meet bi-weekly.

MR. AND MRS. A. R. WILSON FOR MISS SPINDLE

Miss Katherine Spindle, from Virginia, is spending this winter with her sister, Mrs. A. R. Wilson, on West Columbia street. In introduction of Miss Spindle, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will have a series of entertainment. On Thursday evening a box for the Hippodrome followed by a home buffet supper, will find guests. On Friday evening a dinner party will be given at the Huaco club, the party remaining for the club dance. Later in the month a parlor musicale with bridge will be the pleasure within the Wilson home.

WOMEN ARE REMINDED OF ANTI-PARKING

The city commission has announced that the new ordinance which concerns women as well as men takes effect today. This is the anti-parking vehicle to remain longer than one hour on Austin avenue and other downtown avenues. The Morning News editor gives the word of precaution to women who shop today forget. If one is remiss and emerges from shop to find car gone, very likely the traffic policeman has taken it to the city hall. Women will be saved much inconvenience if they will remember that the new ordinance begins to take effect today.

DAUGHTERS OF REPUBLIC WITH THEIR PRESIDENT

Among other women's organizations to fall into line of regular winter session, the Daughters of the Republic chapter is the last. The members greeted each other from summer separation within the home of their president, Mrs. J. Arch Gamel. Miss Lucy Smith with the Mesdames Jennie Blount Holmes and A. P. McGregor read resolutions upon the passing away of Mrs. Kate Gerald Weaver. These were accepted. The history of Texas recently completed by Judge Fulmore of Austin was begun under the leadership of Miss Erath. Mrs. Robert Lee Henry will be admitted a new member. Other than these details the session was social.

EUTERPEAN CLUB CHORUS MEETS THIS AFTERNOON

In announcing the practice session of the woman's chorus now organizing by the Euterpean club under the supervision of Mrs. E. E. Thompson and Mrs. T. M. Bishop, the club wishes to impress the fact that this is proposed to be a union of home women, not professionals, but those who sing less pretentiously and who enjoy practice of singing good music. To enter this chorus department it is not obligatory to become member of the Euterpean club proper. Should any desire information as to what is being done before enrolling, they will be more than welcome at this afternoon is announced in the calendar.

MRS. S. J. DAVIDSON RETURNS WITH MESSAGE

In returning from Houston on Tuesday, Mrs. S. J. Davidson at once sought the Morning News editor to tell of what she saw in the great parade. The event which opened the most unique venture ever made in Texas by women, that of an exclusively women's fair. Mrs. Davidson was put to shame she said, in the counted four hundred automobiles, floats, vehicles, groups in every available pose, all women and girls, loyal to home enterprise. The shame was that when the woman's parade passed the streets of Waco that now there bids fair to be one car where in Houston there were twenty. Surely the Waco girls and women are not going to be outdistanced by Houston? Mrs. Davidson reports the decorations simple, yet effective and full of variety. She is assured that is the matter of public spirit, loyalty to home enterprise and nothing else, which made this parade in Houston what it was. She inquired to find that Houston women do not need even to be requested to enter. They volunteer to do so. Surely the Waco women can do the same. Particularly it is remarked in Houston as to the number of young girls who were in cars, on floats, on horseback, singing and otherwise adding to the interest of the whole. Now, Waco women must take note. They have the most unique enterprise in all Texas, and they must do so, for the Houston women are doing for their home town.

SHAKEREPE CLUB MEETS FOR NEW YEAR'S WORK

Quite the unexpected happened with the Shakers club in its come together season on Monday. Following twenty years of existence, at all times congenial body, the club passes into a new organization. Miss Kate Friend, founder of the Shakers club and director through the entire two decades, finding it impossible to continue, decided that the club continue independent of her instruction. It was unanimous that this should be so, so far as external condition exists there is no change with the Shakers club. Mrs. Marian Herz generously offered her handsome home for the winter, which was accepted. A committee with Mrs. F. J. Lennox chairman was appointed to select a course of study and plan for the same. Mrs. T. W. Robertson, secretary-treasurer of the Fourth district, was elected delegate to the state federation, with Miss Hazel Spencer alternate. A number of new applications were received, which keeps the membership up to fifty. However, considering the withdrawal of Miss Friend, it was decided to notify each member of the club, as certain if they still desired the membership before the list is made final. Mrs. Marian Herz as chairman of Woman's Day for the Cotton Palace has it has done every year. The vote was favorable. For the present the Shakers club will meet bi-weekly instead of weekly, as in former years. Miss Roberta Wright continues president.

ART LEAGUE RESUMES WITH GOOD ATTENDANCE

It was quite gratifying that such a percentage of membership should form the first assembly for the Art League in beginning its new season. This was at the library with Mrs. A. H. Newman in the chair and Mrs. Thomas Caulfield keeping the minutes. Several items of business consumed the time until the response in summer experiences gave a pleasing turn to ideas artistic. Of more than ordinary interest was the report of Mrs. Isaac Goldstein, expressed as an art gem of words, upon her view of the Robert, a statue at Lexington during her recent summer sojourn in Virginia. This is by the Richmond artist, Valentine. Mrs. Goldstein was followed by Mrs. J. W. Downer, whose kitchen home, Richmond, made her frequent visitor to the Valentine studio. More informally some remarks were made from members along the line of art things seen during the summer. Mrs. Columbia street, in introduction of programs suggested that the league give some study to pieces ruined in the present war. Mrs. Frank Forman as chairman of the art department for the Cotton Palace, enlisted with the league in the preliminary contest among amateurs which is to hold at the library. Every amateur in the city is invited to make entry of original work. The committee of judges will then make decision, and the pieces judged most favorably will be admitted to division of amateurs in Cotton Palace collection. Mrs. Forman asks for joint committees from Palatte and Brush, also the Art league, to arrange for this exhibition, to which a social feature will be added, and the public invited to inspect what an exhibit of Waco amateurs will be. The league voted to assist with Woman's Day parade, but make individual entry of float.

Society Notes

Already Waco is falling into line with the simpler, more graceful ballroom dances. When the society ball for the Cotton Palace comes, a great change from the contortions of seasons past will be noticed.

Miss Ethel Foster will be maid for Miss Katherine Reynolds for the queen's coronation.

On Friday, Mrs. Cone Johnson, who is down from Washington City for a Texas visit, will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Arch Gamel, Frovident Heights.

It seems by virtue of circumstance, there is yet another office added to the Cotton Palace queen's court. This is Mistress of the Robes, and the honor goes to Mrs. A. W. Koch, who is planning costumes for the queen's attendants, and working from multitude of detail, a harmonious whole.

Mrs. Frank Allen will be luncheon hostess in honor of Miss Gertrude Wilson as the bride of the coming week. The day is not yet definite.

One of the happy events chronicled from afar within the home of a former prominent Waco woman is that, in Murphresboro, Mrs. Laura Yates Burnett is mother of a wee daughter.

As pleasure for one afternoon of her week end visit, the Mesdames Herman Houk and Michelle Carter, with Miss Pauline Robinson, enjoyed a game of bridge with Mrs. Thomas of College.

Mrs. Ed Krause Kehl, who has been on a visit with her sister, Miss Agnes Krause, will, in leaving, go to her home, Laredo. Mrs. Kehl has resided in Austin ever since her marriage.

As will be noted in today's calendar, the former Girls' Bridge, so long without a name, is now arrived at dignity.

For Sallow, Blotchy, Rough or Greasy Skins

Some skins require constant grooming to keep them from becoming oily, muddy, blotchy or rough, or if such condition has developed, to overcome it. In such chronic cases it is particularly inadvisable to keep piling on cosmetics which clog the pores, collect dirt and make the complexion worse than ever. It's a lot more sensible to use ordinary melleorized wax, which literally absorbs a bad complexion. Apply the wax, like cold cream, before retiring; next morning, in washing it off, you'll wash away fine, flour-like particles of the unsightly cuticle. Repeat for a week or two and you'll have an entirely new skin—soft, satiny, spotless and beautiful as a child's. One ounce of melleorized wax, procurable at any drug-gist's, is all you'll need.

If the skin is wrinkled or flabby, here's the best possible remedy. Mix ½ pint witch hazel and 1 ounce powdered saxolite and use as a face bath. It works like a miracle, yet is entirely harmless.

DANDRUFF GOES! HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

SAVE YOUR HAIR! DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY IN A FEW MOMENTS. TRY THIS!

HAIR STOPS COMING OUT AND EVERY PARTICLE OF DANDRUFF DISAPPEARS.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderuff, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderuff immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference now, but faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderuff and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25c bottle of Knowlton's Danderuff from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has neglected and injured hair will be treated—thats all.

Danderuff is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, and makes them produce new hair. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

for it is christened the Debutante Bridge. Now we have the Debutante, the Bridal, the Young Married Ladies, all these bridge clubs. We predict two clubs will remain missing; that of the Old Married Women and the Old Maids. No woman will have the temerity to propose these.

Mrs. L. A. Barron, formerly of Chicago, is a late acquisition as matron in one of the Franklin street cottages.

One of the formal parties to follow the Cotton Palace season will be that of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marshall, who will present their niece, Miss Dorothy Finley, as debutante, as well as christen to hospitality the handsome new home.

Since the first list, quite a number of chesses from Texas towns have signified their acceptance of attending the Cotton Palace queen.

Mrs. J. H. Blake will, within a few days, return to Houston, to make preparation for her return to reside with Mrs. S. H. Clinton, Eleventh and Columbus, at least until the first Cotton Palace days.

Mrs. Summer Oaks of North Sixteenth street has received congratulations since Saturday connected with her sixtieth wedding anniversary.

In returning from California, Mrs. John D. Mayfield brings the pleasing news from Miss Mary Mayfield that she left Miss Mayfield in Los Angeles in anticipation of the trip across the Pacific to Honolulu.

As lady in waiting for the Cotton Palace queen, Miss Pauline McLendon will be attended by W. D. Lacy, Junior.

Suppose we all this very day, with the city custom with our telephone and answer a call with "This is 1923."

Such a response at once assures the one calling of correct connection. Besides it does away with the rather rough sounding "Hello!"

In coming as Dallas duchess to the Cotton Palace queen's court, Miss Mary Hobson will have as her maid, Miss Elizabeth Wagoner of Dallas. The attendants for these will both be Dallas men.

Society Personals

Mrs. Sidney Goldman has arrived from Saint Louis and is the guest of her mother, Mrs. A. S. Haber, on Austin avenue.

Mrs. Fred Kingsbury of Waco Vista has joined Mr. Kingsbury in a visit of three days with Bryan relatives.

Baylorites Plan Special Train to Game at Dallas

It is probable that a special train will take the football enthusiasts to Dallas Saturday if the move started yesterday by football fans and students of Baylor is completed. The Baylor team will meet the Trinity aggregation on that day in the field in the fair grounds in Dallas.

It was learned that if as many as one hundred passengers can be secured the Katy will run a special train from here at the round trip rate of $2.10. The ones who are pushing the matter are very optimistic and say that they are certain to get the required number of pledges from the supporters of the local team, and as the enthusiasm and interest of the supporters of the Baptists has risen to such an extent since the game between Baylor and Rice, they anticipate little trouble.

Permission has been secured from the authorities at Baylor for the young ladies residing in the dormitories to make the trip of the young women of thirty have already signified their intention of going to the game. While this is breaking a strong and old established rule, yet the authorities think that the trip of the young women of the college will add a great deal to the enthusiasm of the team and will lend a support that will end in a victory to the eleven.

Coach Moseley and Balenti are giving the squad daily practices and scrimmages and are building up a team that is even stronger than it at first appeared. The result of the work at Carroll field this week has produced several new men and some of these will make their first showing in the game at Dallas Saturday. The Baylorites have a strong team in the field this year and are not letting any opportunity pass that will help bring the state title home. The effort to get the special to Dallas is the evidence of the faith of men who are in the bunch who are on the field and who are doing everything in their power to arouse the boys to the greatest effort.

Mayor Is Invited to Name Delegates to Waterway League

An invitation to appoint delegates to represent the city at a meeting in Houston next month of the Interstate Inland Waterway league of Louisiana and Texas was received yesterday by Mayor J. W. Riggins from Leon Locke of Lake Charles, La., general secretary of the league. Mayor Riggins yesterday afternoon visited W. W. Seely, chairman of the Waco delegation at the Brazos navigation and flood prevention meeting at Bryan, suggesting that the delegates from Waco be other communities represented at the meeting be asked to name representatives also.

The entertainment promised by the Houston Chamber of Commerce in addition to the excellent speakers on the program for the league meeting, includes a boat trip down the Houston ship channel and on the Gulf, a luncheon at the Rice hotel, an opportunity to witness the football game between Texas university and the University of the South (Sewanee), and free tickets to the No. 24-Oh carnival at the fair grounds, which begins on Nov. 6, the closing date of the navigation league meeting.

Mayor's Offices at City Hall Are Ready for Occupancy

The offices in the council chamber of the city hall which have been fitted up on order of the commission for the use of Mayor Riggins are now ready for occupancy. A reception office and a private office are provided by extending the partitions that formerly separated the office of city electrician and covering them with a ceiling. The interior of the offices is fitted up in finished walls, shades and Venetian blinds over the windows, etc. The massive furniture provided is of light quartered oak. Handsome rugs are on the floors, with large ornamental bowl lights for the ceilings. Electric ceiling fans are provided.

Yiddish Actress Coming to Majestic

On account of her remaining in Yiddish roles, despite the flattering and numerous offers from the managers of big popular attractions, Miss Pauline Winters, who comes to the Majestic October 14-15 with Larginman's Yiddish company, has attracted much attention. Her ability and excellent work as a comedienne and emotional actress has been looked upon with interest in "The Power of Love," the Jewish drama which had a long run in New York, Boston and Philadelphia. Miss Winters is credited with doing her best work.

Miss Pauline Winters was born of poor Jewish parents and is now only

Notice to Subscribers
Delivery routes in the City of Waco are in the hands of independent carriers who buy the papers at wholesale prices. Subscriptions are due them, not the Waco Morning News. They are under heavy bond, not only to give the best delivery service, but to pay for their papers each month. Their remuneration is the difference between the wholesale price and the retail price which they receive from subscribers. This margin of profit is such that they cannot afford to extend credit, except month by month. They are not required, and they are advised against, delivering the paper to anyone who does not pay in accordance with the above subscription terms. These carriers are all earnest, hard working men and they will appreciate any courtesy shown them.

The Morning News should be delivered throughout the city by 6:30 a. m., and subscribers failing to receive the paper at that time will confer a favor by phoning the Circulation Department, both phone 1132, and a copy will be sent by special messenger.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of the Morning News will be gladly corrected upon its being brought to the attention of the management.

CHURCHES AND RURAL LIFE.

In the hope of increasing the efficiency of the rural churches, and through the churches elevating rural life in general, the Presbyterian headquarters in New York City announce the organization of a specially trained force of preachers to be sent to the rural churches of Tennessee, Arkansas, Texas and other states of the South and Southwest. Ten presbyteries have been selected in which to try the experiments, which will be made with a total of fifty churches. The presumption is the work will be greatly extended if the experiment proves helpful.

The Rev. W. H. Wilson, head of the country life department of the Presbyterian church, believes that the church should aid the farmer in the production of livestock, improvement of soils, seed selection, raising children and the like. He has not decided yet whether a pastor can be trained to impart this information or whether it should be given by experts employed by the church. We think there are other agencies through which the farmer might be instructed in his livestock and farming, but there are lots of other ways in which the church can do extension work in the country and the city, too, and we are glad to see the Presbyterians becoming actively interested in that line of endeavor.

A NEW DISINFECTANT.

As a result of experiments conducted at the hygienic laboratory of the United States public health service it is announced that a new disinfectant possessing qualities superior to ordinary disinfectants has recently been discovered. The announcement is particularly important at this time, coming as it does in the face of the shortage in coal tar derivatives which has resulted from the European conflict.

The new preparation is derived from pine oil, a by-product in the manufacture of turpentine. It is easily prepared by mixing certain proportions of the oil with rosin and sodium hydroxide solution, the finished product being a reddish-brown liquid, rather thick and oily in appearance but free from turbidity. With water it makes a perfectly white emulsion, much resembling milk. It has a pleasant odor, no objectionable taste, and attacks neither fabrics nor metals. It possesses over four times the disinfectant properties of carbolic acid and is altogether nontoxic, so that it may safely be used as a throat spray or mouth wash in solutions of the ordinary strength. The cost of the preparation is remarkably low as it can be manufactured for less than fifty cents a gallon, solely from products which are produced in this country.

Many of the disinfectants now on the market are neither efficient nor economical, it having been demonstrated that a number of the more expensive and widely advertised are extremely weak in disinfecting power, so much so that their strength is unresponsibility upon the manufacturer sale of compounds of this nature constitutes a fraud. A second class of proprietary preparations are of guaranteed strength, thus putting a legal responsibility upon the manufacturer, but the cost of these per unit of disinfecting power is frequently excessive. The householder is therefore often at loss to select a disinfectant which is efficient, economical and of constant strength and it is believed that this new compound, which is to be known as "Hygienic Laboratory Pine-oil Disinfectant," will become one of the most useful preparations of that character.

Up in Cottage Grove, Minn., a hamlet of 420 homes, too small to support a daily newspaper, a young woman has induced the telephone company to put a switchboard in her home. She gets the news from the city by phone and at a certain hour every day she connects all homes having a telephone with her switchboard and then tells all of the listeners the news. Of course, for the dissemination of community gossip it is not necessary to go through this formality, as the people will soon find it out, anyhow, even if there were no telephone.

The New Orleans States is rejoicing, in view of the recent tropical storm that swept that city, that that city was not entertaining the Panama-Pacific exposition, in which event the destruction and humiliation would have been much greater, by reason of the large number of visitors there to share the inconvenience of the disturbing elements.

A new use for the parcel post has been found in some of the towns of the Northwest. Books from public libraries are sent out to rural schools by this means, the schools acting as assistant librarians.

"We have been frequently asked what we would do if an enemy took possession of New York. Hereafter we will advise that he be dropped into the subway—or further," says the Florida Times-Union.

New Leaders Appear in Morning News Contest

Remarkable Gains Made by Candidates in Districts Two and Three. Big Special Vote Offer Expires Tomorrow.

The standing of the contestants today in the Morning News voting contest indicates that the workers are getting down to brass tacks, and none of them are going to permit the grass to grow under their feet. The largest gains made today are in the two out-of-town districts.

Contestants in Districts Two and Three show some remarkable results. Mrs. J. W. Clark of Speepleville, who just entered the contest Friday and who held last position in her district Sunday, jumps to second position today with a net gain of 5,130 votes. This is only one indication of what a new contestant can do at this period of the contest. Other large gains in District Three were made today by Mrs. W. H. George, Miss Juanita Tusa, Miss Beulah Wright, Miss Agnes McFerrin, Buran Honey, George Morris and Mrs. John T. Ivy. The whole thing seems to have changed around in District Two, as several new leaders are in the race. Mrs. W. A. Miles of Chilton takes the lead today for the first time and Mrs. Roy Edwards of Crawford has made a large gain and holds second place. Miss Max Mills of Hubbard City is another in District Two who has gained several thousand votes since Sunday and holds a very good position. Several others in District Two show up today with gains of many thousands of votes.

Miss Anna Goss leads today in the Waco district with several others pressing close behind.

Tomorrow is the last day of the big special offer and each contestant should make every minute count, because after tomorrow night there will be less votes issued on the special offer.

It now looks as though the contestants in Districts Two and Three would give those in District One a hot race for the grand prize Overland automobile. During the last ten days it has been conceded by a great many that the grand prize would go to some contestant in District One.

STANDING OF THE CANDIDATES.

Two More Additions at Central Christian Revival Services

Two additions were received into the church last night at the Central Christian revival, Rev. Hugh McLellan, the evangelist, preaching on "The Reasons for the Conditions of Salvation." There was a good crowd and interest appears to be growing. Mrs. Joseph G. Wren is leading the singing and her solos each night are proving features of the revival.

The meeting will continue through the week, at least. The evangelist will preach tonight on "The Safe Course," and he considers this one of his very strongest sermons.

Trilby Makes Fine Play for Filming

(The New York American.)

Some years ago William A. Brady foresaw a successful drama in the Du Maurier novel, "Trilby," and had Paul M. Potter make the dramatization. Recently the Equitable Motion Picture company spent many weeks in converting the Potter version into a splendid and artistic film production, and this was given its premiere at the Forty-fourth street theatre last night. It drew a capacity and enthusiastic holiday audience.

The screen version of "Trilby" is in every sense an artistic masterpiece. The Equitable people have spared neither effort nor expense. In many ways they have accomplished things that would have been utterly impossible to other than a well-trained staff. For "Trilby" has been converted into a modern, gripping, gripping film play, and visualized by a splendid cast of Broadway calibre. It is done by a company of more than thirty principals and a supporting cast of several hundred.

Some of the big scenes that had been limited on the spoken presentation are done more vividly in the motion picture. No matter how many times you may have seen the play, you are sure to enjoy it as a photodrama.

All the famous characters of the sensational Du Maurier story such as Trilby, Svengali, Gwenda, and Little Lilith have been retained. This screen version introduces a new Trilby in the charming Clara Kimball Young. Wilton Lackaye, who created the difficult role of Svengali in the original production years ago and later in the revival at the Shubert theatre, was seen in the role on the screen last night.

One of the several worthy things accomplished in the filming is the fact that the scenes have been acted in the exact locale of the play and book. The film has been produced by Maurice Tourneur, the noted French dramatic director, and with his work augmented by S. L. Rothaphel, the genius who made the Strand the artistic place it is, "Trilby" well deserves a place at the top of the list of great film productions. Rothaphel has given it an attractive setting and has supplied an orchestra of forty pieces to interpret the incidental music. The music feature in itself is a treat.

Old Folks' Service
Friday Morning at Herring Ave. Revival

Interest is increasing in the Herring Avenue Methodist revival and Rev. R. F. Brown, the pastor, preached last night from the twenty-sixth verse of the eleventh chapter of Acts. At the close of the service, many of the congregation took the minister by the hand and said that they wanted to be true Bible Christians.

There will be a special service for old people at 10 o'clock Friday morning, and carriages and automobiles will bring those of the vicinity who have no way to come. The music is proving one of the features of the revival. W. M. Bowden of Brownwood leading the choir and giving a solo at each service.

CITY NEWS BRIEFS.

Edward Dunn recovered a judgment of $50 damages against the Southern Traction company in the county court yesterday morning.

Six poll taxes were paid to County Tax Collector Lee R. Davis and his deputies yesterday, making a total of fifty-one so far this year.

Cotton receipts in Waco yesterday were only 189 bales. Prices ranged from 11 1/2 to 12 1/4 cents a pound. Public Weigher Sam Nix said last night that most of the cotton brought in was sold.

If anybody thinks Fire Marshal J. A. Carlisle is not the proudest man in Waco, the guess is wrong, for a daughter arrived at the family residence, 1710 Lyle street, yesterday morning. Mother and daughter are both doing well.

Four cases for violation of the pure food laws were dismissed yesterday, two of them in Justice J. J. Padgett's court and as many in Justice Giles Lester's court. The defendants were J. J. Potts, L. Santikos, C. O. Miller and Alex Pappas.

Sid Flukers, already under arrest in the state courts in relation to the Mart box car burglaries, was arrested yesterday on a federal charge by J. A. Rogers, deputy United States marshal. United States Commissioner A. P. McCormick fixed his bond at $100 and set his examining trial for tomorrow.

Mayer Riggins has received some handsome souvenir booklets, giving the itinerary and the history of the Liberty Bell which will be in Waco for an hour and twenty minutes November 17. The booklets are given out at each stop of the bell. They are the compliments of the city of Philadelphia.

The Auditorium theatre is being re-wired for the opening of the theatrical season. All wires are being put in conduits and improved switchboards and connections installed. The old wiring in the building was condemned by City Electrician E. F. Copley, and instructions given to the Texas Power & Light company not to connect the building for service until the re-wiring was done. The estimated cost of re-wiring the building is $1200.

DO YOU FEEL HEADACHY?
LOCK TO YOUR STOMACH

It is an unusual thing for a druggist to sell medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. Yet this is the way that nearly every druggist in Waco is selling Mi-o-na, the standard dyspepsia remedy.

Druggists say that never before have they had so large a number of customers tell them that a medicine has been so successful as with Mi-o-na. People who a few months ago suffered continually with their stomachs today are ruddy and vigorous with perfect digestion and good health. They say Mi-o-na did it.

There no longer seems any need for any one suffering or making their friends suffer on account of dyspepsia. Mi-o-na can always be relied upon. The percentage of success is so great that there is little risk in guaranteeing to return the money if the medicine does not relieve. And all the best druggists stand ready to do so without any questions.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, sneaks before the eyes, dizzy feelings, poor sleep, ringing in the ears and all forms of liver trouble are helped by Mi-o-na. A few days' treatment should show considerable gain in health, while a complete cure often follows rapidly.

The days are the best in the whole year for the enjoyment of good health, and Mi-o-na will put you in such perfect condition that you can enjoy every minute of them. Sold and recommended by Powers-Kelly Drug Co., and other leading druggists.

"Evidence," Today and Tomorrow.
World Film corporation presents the five-part photoplay, "Evidence," founded on the drama of the same name by J. Du Rocher Macpherson. The story relates how Lord Wimbourne, finding his wife, Lady Una, in the embrace of a former lover, Captain Pollock, on their balcony after a party at their home, refuses to listen to explanations from his wife, from Pollock or from Lushington, a friend of the family, who had also been a former suitor for the Lady Una's hand. Thus he does not learn that Pollock in a drunken state had forced his attentions on Una, and that she had in no way been untrue to her husband. Pollock, bent on revenge, after Wimbourne has refused to listen to his apology, writes to the Lady Una, saying that her husband is ill and at the Red Lion Inn, and asks her to come at once. In great distress, she goes. On entering the room in which she thinks her husband is ill and finds herself again in the arms of her former suitor. Determined to throw herself from the window if Pollock does not let her go, she is about to carry out her threat, when she hears her husband's voice. Wimbourne, having found that his wife had gone to the inn, has followed her. Breaking down the door, he finds Una in a faint. Pollock and Una are left to face disgrace. The dishonorable captain immediately leaves for the war.
After the divorce, Lushington, a true friend of both Lord and Lady Wimbourne, tries to bring about a reconciliation through "Bing," their son. Wimbourne refuses to be reconciled and tells the Lady Una that he will marry Mrs. Ebengham, a schemer who has done her best to further the gap between them. It is only after Una has again refused Lushington, and that he has gone to India to forget his sorrow, that evidence is produced to prove Una's guiltlessness. Lushington comes across Pollock, who is ill. The captain signs a written confession exonerating Una. Returning with the document, Lushington gives it to Lord Wimbourne. In reconciling his dearest friends, Lushington finds happiness, although he realizes that he will never be able to fulfill the greatest longing of his heart—to have the Lady Una as his wife.

Clara Kimball Young and Wilton Lackaye in "Trilby."
The story of the play:
Trilby, a model for an obscure sculptor, seeking adventure, meets little Billy, the Laird, Svengali, Ghecko and others. Svengali experiments with Trilby and proves that he can hypnotize her. His devilish mind conceives the idea of keeping her under mesmerism power and giving her, through this power, the voice of a nightingale. Billy and Trilby fall in love with each other and when Svengali finally influences Trilby away, and through his hellish power makes her a great Diva, Billy is inconsolable. Trilby mounts the ladder of fame and soon becomes a universal figure. Billy and his friends happen into a theatre one night where a fashionable audience has gathered to hear the famous La Svengali, as Trilby has become known. Discovering Trilby, Billy attacks Svengali, who dies of heart failure and Trilby after months of torture recovers her own personality and is about to become happy when, facing Svengali's picture, the old influence returns and she drops dead of fright.

AUDITORIUM.

"When Dreams Come True."
If one wants pleasantly and profitably to while away an evening, one should by all means see "When Dreams Come True." There is so much diversified entertainment in the play that one will readily find something of interest. If one longs for melodrama, see "When Dreams Come True." It is melodramatic. Should one's taste be inclined to farce, see "When Dreams Come True." It is farcical. Does one's fancy tend to musical comedy of the brightest order, then see "When Dreams Come True," for it is musical comedy of the highest order, an anomaly among musical comedies inasmuch as it is musical and has real comedy throughout the entire action.
"When Dreams Come True" is one of the most adroitly constructed plays of that has ever been seen on the stage. Combining in the plot nearly every form of stage entertainment, it is as cleverly done and the sequence of events have such a logical bearing on the whole play that the story works out without one incongruous incident to mar the smoothness of the performance. The music by Silvio Hein, who is well known as the composer of Marie Cahill's greatest successes, and if there are ideals in musical comedy, Mr. Hein is reaching after them in the music of "When Dreams Come True." Several of the songs have become immensely popular, notably "When Dreams Come True," "Come Along to the Movies," "Y-o-u, Dear, Y-o-u," "The Scenic Equipment of 'When Dreams Come True' is elaborate to the last degree. The first scene represents the deck of an ocean liner, and shows the wonderful possibilities of the scene painter's art; the second scene shows a wharf at New York City with another view of the liner; the third scene represents the interior of a millionaire's mansion in New York and the final scene shows a ballroom in the same house. The last scene is painted on silk to get a certain lighting effect.
The gowns worn by the ladies are from the Orange, Mfg. Co., and are fashioned after the very latest Paris creations. The chorus is a delightful feature of the company, inasmuch as the choisters were selected not alone for their good looks, but also for their vocal ability. The principals of the cast are players, well seasoned to the requirements of musical comedy, and a great deal of time and care was employed in the selection of artists who in looks as well as ability were qualified to meet the ideals of the authors. Taken as a whole, the coming engagement of "When Dreams Come True" promises to be one of the most gratifying entertainments of the present season.

HIPPODROME.

"The Price of Her Silence."
A weak-willed, flighty girl, who falls in love and then elopes with the family chauffeur; and her sister, a self-willed, strong-minded young woman, who assumes the stigma in following her sister's false steps, are the principal characters in "The Price of Her Silence," a four-part romantic drama, released as a Mutual Masterpicture here today and tomorrow.
The charming, talented young stars of the Thanhouser studios, Florence LaBadie and Mignon Anderson, who are recognized as two of the most popular young women in motion picture work, are the co-stars of "The Price of Her Silence." Miss LaBadie, portraying the strong-willed girl, and Miss Anderson her weaker sister.
Miss LaBadie, well remembered for her work in "God's Witness," "The Patriot and the Spy" and "Monsieur Lecoq," preceding Mutual Masterpictures screened at the Thanhouser studios, rises to one of her greatest triumphs as the heroine in "The Price of Her Silence," the role furnishing her with an exceptional opportunity of bringing into play the many dramatic and emotional talents with which she has been gifted.
Miss Anderson, too, it may be said, scores one of her greatest successes in this exceptionally powerful romantic drama; some critics even aver that her portrayal of the weak sister in "The Price of Her Silence" overshadows that she furnished in "Milestones of Life," a Mutual Masterpicture released some weeks ago.

Ask Commissioners to Help in Getting County Libraries

In an effort to secure circulating libraries throughout McLennan county, President I. A. Goldstein of the library association, and Miss Pauline McCauley, librarian, visited the county commissioners yesterday morning. Mr. Goldstein and Miss McCauley, in appearing before the commissioners, asked that they endorse the movement and set aside a monthly appropriation to carry on the work. The proposition of whether they had the authority to do so or not was referred to County Attorney McNamara, asking him to report back to the commission body at an early date. The movement will receive new life and a great impetus if the matter can be handled as suggested at the meeting yesterday, and circulating libraries can be established in various portions of the county if the matter is reported favorably by Attorney McNamara, in the opinion of the officers of the library association.

ITALIANS OBSERVE COLUMBUS DAY HERE

SOCIETY CHRISTOFERO COLUMBO GIVES PROGRAM AND DANCE AT EAGLES' HALL.

The wonderful achievement of Christopher Columbus in discovering America on October 12, 1492, was celebrated in Waco last night by the sons and daughters of sunny Italy who reside in this city. The day was also observed as a holiday by the closing of all clearing house banks.

A committee, composed of G. Russo, T. Scario, J. Milano, secretary; C. Rovello, J. Tropolino, G. Cuccia, J. Rovello and T. Bonafida, was in charge of the observance of the day by the local society of Cristoforo Colombo, held last night at Eagles' hall.

V. Kemendo, president of the local lodge, made a few opening remarks and called upon Prof. V. Alessandro to introduce the program. There were a number of instrumental numbers by Misses Carolina and Rosalie Russo and Miss Marguerite Kemendo, all of which were heartily applauded. Prof. Alessandro then made a talk, explaining the reasons for passing around the loving cups, given to the society by the late John Fall and former Mayor J. H. Mackey, in which he eulogized Mr. Fall's memory and praised Mr. Mackey.

Sheriff S. S. Fleming and John Fall, Jr., made short talks, the last number on the program being the playing of "The Star-Spangled Banner." The program was written by Prof. Alessandro in 1904, being one of his first compositions, and was first played at the unveiling of the Columbus monument in Pueblo, Colo.

Interior Department Advertising Schools to Foreign Element

As a means of advertising the schools and of attracting the attention of the foreign element to secure an education, the postoffice department is sending out an attractively printed poster prepared by the department of the interior. This poster calls attention to non-English-speaking aliens to the public school system of the United States and the wording appears in seven different languages.

It is believed by the department that the foreigners will be induced to take advantage of the benefits offered them free by the schools of this country.

hickory sticks of the American league champions, hurled a fair game of ball. He allowed only eight hits, Hoblitzel leaving on his slants three of that number. Chalmers is a native of Scotland, but he came to this country at an early age and has taken to the national game with all the skill and cunning of an American boy.

Today's game was the last in which the players share the receipts. A total of $144,899.50 awaits division among the members of the two teams. The division of the receipts under the national commission rules by which players participate in the profits of only the first four games. The winning team will receive $86,939.75, or 60 per cent of the total. As twenty-three players of each team are eligible contestants in the series, the individual share will amount to $3,779.98 each, if the division is equal.

The players' profits this year are not equal to those of 1911 and 1912, the record crowds at the two games played on the Braves' field failing to offset the restricted attendance at the Philadelphia park.

123,040 See Games.

During these four games 123,040 persons have watched the play of the teams. They have paid $265,222.50 for their places. Of this sum the national commission will receive $26,833.25. Each club treasury gains $48,299.25 from these games and will be further enriched, as will be the commission's strong box, by the receipts at subsequent contests, in which the players have no financial interest.

The crowd today was smaller than yesterday's record-breaking outpouring, but through no fault of the Boston fans. Nearly 20,000 of them were turned away and the confusion so riotous that it seemed dangerous to even attempt to enter the stadium. Many ticket holders were caught in the jam and unable to make their way to the gates, which were closed long before the game started.

The day was made for baseball, warm and sunny. There was little to thrill the spectators in the game except the circus catches by Duffy Lewis, so the fans amused themselves with music and songs.

Tomorrow Manager Carrigan probably will send George Foster to the mound to oppose Alexander. Foster pitched a brilliant game in Philadelphia last Saturday, winning it with only one run, and he is rather anxious for a fling at the Philadelphia star.

"Babe" Ruth, the big Boston left-hander, has not yet had a chance in the series. Carrigan may give him to him if the big fellow seems right.

With Alexander missing from the Phillies' combination, the strength of the Red Sox was apparent. He pitched steady ball, but he was not as effective as Moran's mound star. His spit ball delivery had a sharp upward curve and he had perfect control that made Alexander's slants so hard to hit safely.

Warmth Helps Chalmers.

The warm afternoon undoubtedly helped Chalmers, but his elaborate wind-up caused him to lose the advantage of cutting the corners of the plate at times. Burns had to step lively on several occasions to get the ball and when the delivery was in or near the groove, the American league champions appeared to have less difficulty solving Chalmers' curves than they did those of Alexander and Mayor.

Chalmers' second appearance on the mound for the Red Sox was not marked by any great improvement over his initial facing of the Phillies last Friday. Although he was in charge of the game, it was due more to the excellent defense at his back than to any phenomenal twirling on his part.

While he fanned two more batters than in the opening contest, he pitched with less critical moments, his pitching was less impressive than in the game he lost.

The defense at Shore's back, however, was of a far higher character than in the opening game. The Red Sox were still unsteady and the breaks went against them. In the game today both the infield and outfield moved surely and swiftly, cutting off high hits and balls as they came. The defense was showing the same keen playing judgment that marked their work during the closing months of the pennant season.

An example of this occurred in the sixth inning when with Chalmers on first, Stock smashed a hard bouncer to Scott at short, who scooped the ball up and relayed it to Barry at second for a force-out. Mackey, who was on first, tried to hit Hoblitzel to catch the batter, but the ball slipped through Hoblitzel and rolled to the grandstand boxes, hitting the concrete wall and rebounding to the coach's box.

Mackey, who was coaching back of first, sent Stock down to second on the play but Hoblitzel sprinted after the ball and by a quick throw to Barry was waiting at second, caught Stock five feet in front of the sack.

Phillies Not So Keen.

In marked contrast to this clever turning of what appeared to be a bad slip into a fast double play, was one made by the Red Sox scored their first run of the game. With Barry on first, due to a pass, Cady, attempted to try to hard, rolled to the right of the box and both Chalmers and Luderus tried to field it. Chalmers slipped just as he was about to catch the ball, and the ball completely. Luderus was well into the diamond and when Chalmers finally secured the sphere Cady was sprinting for first, where the bag was unattended and the attempted sacrifice went for a hit.

The ability to think and handle the ball quickly was demonstrated for first time today when the Red Sox scored the deciding factor in the victory although the winners by their hard and timely batting, backed up by the defense work with an attack which has been notably lacking in the play of the Philadelphia club in the series to date.

In this connection the Red Sox varied the tactics today when on one occasion they switched their batting methods and caught the Phillies unprepared for the change. In the eighth inning with Speaker on first and one of Hoblitzel brought off a perfect hit and run play when a sacrifice hit was expected, driving the ball to right field on which Speaker easily made third.

This was not the only time that Hoblitzel came in for a great round of applause. He found his batting eye early in the game and accumulated three hits and scored one of the two runs of the Sox. Cady was the only other member of the team to secure more than one hit. Lewis added another to his string and still leads the club with seven hits in fourteen times at bat, giving a batting average of .500. Barry is second with five hits in fifteen times at bat, while Speaker and Hooper are tied for third place with four hits each.

Among the National leaguers, Luderus, as the result of his three safe drives today, is in the lead with a total of five hits in fourteen trips to the plate. Bancroft still holds second position with three hits, although he did not increase his batting average. Burns, Cravath and Stock are grouped with two hits each. The Red Sox as a team have made seven runs and thirty-two hits, and the Phillies six runs and eighteen hits in the four games of the series.

Shore is Applauded.

Pitcher Shore, who lost his battle with Alexander in Philadelphia last Friday, was loudly cheered as he took the mound to open the game. He served up a ball to Stock, lead-off man for Philadelphia. Then he shot over two strikes and after another ball had been called, Stock ripped a hit down the left field foul line.

Duffy Lewis, by hard sprinting, fielded the ball quickly and made a fine throw to Scott, nipping the Philadelphia runner at second. Shore struck out four batters. With two balls and two strikes on Paskert, Bancroft stole second. Cady made a good throw to Barry and the runner was clearly out but in the mix-up at second Barry dropped the ball and Bancroft was safe.

Paskert struck out and Shore completely fooled "Gavvy" Cravath, who also fanned.

Chalmers then made his debut as a pitcher's series pitcher and started out in fine style. He made short work of Hooper, first up for the Red Sox, striking out on five pitches. Then he fanned Barry, fanning him on four offerings. Tris Speaker, however, was rewarded with a base on balls, but was out trying to steal, retiring the side.

Captain Luderus singled to right field in the second inning. He went to second on White's sacrifice. Chalmers then pitched to Niohoff sent up a high foul to Cady.

Shore gave Burns a base on four strikes. Chalmers struck out, leaving the two runners on the bases. Hoblitzel, in Boston's half of the second, took a limit on balls and strikes and fanned Chalmers third strike out in four outs. Lewis hit weakly to the pitcher and was thrown out. Paskert pitched in Gardner's long fly, ending the inning.

Shore showed to better advantage in the third Stock grounded out, going to Hoblitzel. Bancroft walked for the second time. Paskert struck out again. Then Cravath duplicated the long fly which he made yesterday, hitting the pole a tremendous drive to Lewis, who had to go back almost to the fence to catch the ball and in the process, he broke the ice in their half of the third. Barry was given a base on balls. Then Burns got a lead off hit. Cady, in attempting to sacrifice, bunted to Chalmers, who slipped and fell in trying to field the ball. Before he could reach Niohoff, Burns was safe at second. Cady at first, the play counting as a hit for the latter.

Umpire's Decision Changed.

With one strike on Shore, Chief Umpire Evans suddenly was both runner and umpire. He was on the mound, instantly the Philadelphia infield and Chalmers started to run in to protest, but as they did so, Evans called in a higher official, who was officiating on the bases. The result was that the balk was not allowed, as Rifier indicated Chalmers was not on the pitchers' slab when he apparently made a motion to throw to first. Evans sent both runners back.

Shore laid down a sacrifice and was out. Stock to Niohoff, Barry and Cady advancing. Hooper then pushed an ugly bouncer to the infield. Niohoff, who was unable to catch either of the runners, Barry scoring the Sox' initial run. Chalmers, in going to the mound, was very scratchy hit. Scott sent a high foul fly that Whitted got by good sprinting and held Cady and Burns safe at second. Speaker was out on an easy grounder to Luderus.

Philadelphia got two men on bases in the fifth. After Luderus had flied out to Hooper, Whitted bounced a grounder to Scott and was thrown out. Then Cady, who had flied out in the first inning, saw first base for the first time on four balls. Burns put him on second with a single to right. Then Chalmers came in a pine and ended the inning by shooting a scorching grounder to Scott, who snapped the ball to Niohoff at first.

Hoblitzel opened the Red Sox' fourth with a safe drive to center. He advanced to second on Lewis' sacrifice. Chalmers, who was left, however, for Gardner was out on a long fly to Whitted and Barry's skyscraper settled in Paskert's hands.

Both pitchers were going in true championship form by this time. Each had yielded only one hit. Chalmers was the steadier, having given two bases on balls to Shore's four up to the end of the fourth inning. Shore after the fourth inning, did not allow any of the Quakers to walk.

Stock, first up for the Moran men in the sixth, flied out. Luderus flied out to Hooper. Paskert flied out to Lewis. In the Red Sox half, Cady singled to center. He got a base on a sacrifice. Then he was a victim on strikes on three pitched balls. Hooper and Scott flied out to Paskert.

In the seventh inning, Cady hit the first ball pitched to Speaker for an easy out. Luderus pushed his second single of the game to the right. Chalmers sent up a high fly, which Cady caught near the pitcher's box. Niohoff flied out to Lewis.

In the eighth inning, Cady hit the second consecutive hitting scored the second run. Niohoff made a pretty play on Speaker, who flied out. Then Cady, who was on base, hit a single to the right. Chalmers was cheered as he dropped a Texas leaguer into short centerfield. A doubt as to whether the ball was a home run or a double play, threw low to Hoblitzel and the ball went between Hoblitzel's legs to the grandstand. Stock kept on running. Hoblitzel got the ball on the rebound from the concrete stand and shot it to Barry ahead of the runner, concluding the inning.

The National leaguers made a strong bid to tie the score in the eighth after two were out. Bancroft flied out to Hooper and Paskert sent up a high fly to Gardner. Cravath hit a terrific drive to centerfield. The ball struck in front of the pitcher and bounded over his head and by the time he had recovered it near the fence Cravath had passed second. He made third easily on the throw-in. Luderus shot his third single of the game to center field and Cravath romped home with the Phillies' solitary run. Ducey tried Moran's judgment by stealing second, the only theft in the game. He was left on second as Whitted was an easy out. Shore then flied out.

The Phillies were quickly disposed of in the final inning. Niohoff was thrown out by Gardner and Burns raised a high fly to Scott. Byrne, pinch hitting for Chalmers, sent a fly to Lewis, who gathered in his sixth put-out of the game, and Boston chalked up another victory.

Marlin, Oct. 12.—Last night Major W. B. Jackson of the Second regiment, Texas National Guard, mustered into the service of the state the Marlin military company, to be known as the B. C. Clifton Light Guards of Marlin. Sixty-six enlisted men took the oath of service and three commissioned officers, Captain Roy Jamison, First Lieutenant Robin Hunsicutt and Second Lieutenant Jim Dewberry. Major Jackson left Marlin this morning for Waco, en route home to Hillsboro. The officers today started making requisitions for guns and uniforms.

Russia Faces Crisis in Financial Way

By The Associated Press.

London, Oct. 12, 4:22 a. m.—The enormous drain on Russia's supply of money and the financial strain upon the country are emphasized by the Times' Russian correspondent in a review of the situation in the east. Russia, he says, never expected the war to last longer than six months. She had sufficient money, an abundance of shells and a superfluity of men for such a war.

"She strove," the correspondent declares, "to meet the demands for ammunition, but she possesses neither the industrial background, the skilled hands nor the industrial mobility to support her army adequately. She must depend upon outside help and has to buy from Japan, the United States or elsewhere. Thus the problem becomes largely financial."

He also remembered that the Russian ruble has depreciated forty per cent; that Russia raises nothing by the sale of spirits and scarcely anything by her tariff on imports and she has great difficulty in borrowing in America.

"For the time being she continues to hold her own. Soldiers' wages and army bills are paid with admirable punctuality and there is a feeling that all supplies will be obtained easily if once the Dardanelles are taken. But those who know the true inwardness of the situation know how much financial difficulty stands in the way of Russia making up lost ground and entering again upon a vigorous offensive."

Oriental Speakers Say Peace a Dream

By The Associated Press.

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—Count Okuma, Japanese premier, and Dr. Ng Poon Chew, a Chinese editor of San Francisco, told delegates to the International Peace congress that world peace was yet a fantasy and will be until the militaristic order of things is changed.

In a message to the congress Count Okuma said there was no hope for peace "as long as there exist nations or individuals who believe or exult in their power as absolutely superior to others and to assert that superiority do not hesitate to appeal to material forces."

On the floor of the congress tonight Dr. Ng added to Count Okuma's statement: "There will be wars and more wars just so long as there are two codes of laws and two standards of morality, one governing nations, the other individuals."

War, he said, was going to keep right on in one place or another. Even China was getting ready. He blamed western militarism, which he said had not only parcelled China, but had destroyed her ideals of peace, and he called Japan the disturber of the peace of the Orient, a nation whose "ambition is boundless."

If the United States were as unprepared it would fare no better than China at the hands of the world powers," said Dr. Ng.

DEATHS

Will Clifton.

Will T. Clifton died at Louisville, N. C., at 6:30 Monday evening, according to telegrams received here late Monday night. The funeral will be at Louisville, his old home, probably tomorrow. Mr. Clifton had been in bad health, having left Waco on account of his health about a year ago. He was cashier of the Provident National bank, resigning when he left here; had been connected with that institution for twelve years and was with the First National previous to that time.

From Waco Mr. Clifton went to California and then to Asheville, N. C. Realizing that chances were against his recovery, he went to Louisville, where he died.

Mr. Clifton was a prominent banker and had hundreds of friends in Waco and over Texas. He was a nephew of Dr. W. R. Clifton and had resided in Waco for about 25 years. Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. W. Clifton, and the following brother and sisters, all of whom live at Louisville: M. S. Clifton, Mrs. John King, Mrs. Sam Body, Mrs. B. Perry and Mrs. P. Joiner.

Mrs. H. D. Webb Dies.
Mrs. Celia Webb, 53 years old, died at 2:30 yesterday afternoon at a local sanitarium. Surviving are her husband, H. D. Webb, two daughters, Morene and Allene, a son, Leonard Webb, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harwell, a brother, Ed Harwell, and a sister, Miss Allene Harwell, all of Robinson, and another sister, Mrs. C. E. Edwards, of Waco.

Leonard is a Musician.
San Francisco, Oct. 12.—"Dutch" Leonard, who pitched the Boston Red Sox to victory yesterday in the world's series, forsook music as a means of livelihood to play baseball. Six years ago the Leonard family lived in Fresno, Cal., and was known for musical ability. "Dutch" was a trap drummer until success as a musician altered his plans for taking up professional orchestra work.

SHAKE OFF THE CLUTCH OF DANGEROUS RHEUMATISM

One Of The Greatest Enemies To The Peace Of Man

Rheumatism may mean not only the suffering of the present, but a complete breakdown from which there may be no recovery.

It must be borne in mind that Rheumatism is a blood trouble and in its early stages, is not necessarily accompanied by pains shooting through the joints and muscles, nor by swollen joints, nor outward indications beyond a slight numbness in the limbs and pains in the back. This very fact may lull the sufferer into believing that the disease is of a temporary local nature, caused by a slight cold or sleeping in a draught. In many cases this is but the beginning of the disease, which, if not taken in time, will grow rapidly worse until the result will be Rheumatism in its most virulent form. It is well to sound the warning and impress upon every one that these slight indications should be given prompt, vigorous and careful attention, for they denote that Uric Acid is present in the blood and unless eradicated will work rapidly until it has contaminated the entire system. These symptoms, mild in the beginning, gradually grow worse. The ailment temporarily relieved by liniments and blistering will finally fail to respond to these treatments for the reason that acid in the blood cannot be eradicated by them. It will soon cause excruciating pains in the joints, muscles and limbs. It will cause chronic stomach troubles, bad digestion and torpid liver. The blood will become so debilitated from being impregnated with the Uric Acid poison that the whole system is liable at any time to break down. While not necessa-rially fatal, the sufferer is face to face with a stubborn bodily ailment for which there is no relief except by a complete restoration of the blood to its normal, healthful state. Unless this is done, you can never be permanently well. As a remedy for rheumatic troubles S. S. S. has never been equaled. It doesn't inflame the stomach and ruin the digestion like Potash, Iodides and other strong drugs, but tones up the general health, gently stimulates the sluggish organs, and at the same time filters out of the blood all poisonous acids.

When S. S. S. has restored the blood to its normal condition, the painful feverish joints and the sore and tender muscles are relieved. The Swift Specific Company maintains a corps of specialists, trained in the treatment of blood diseases, who have made a life time study of Rheumatism, Catarrh, Eczema, Blood Poison and other infections of the blood. Our special book on Rheumatism will be mailed free to those desiring it. Our physicians will cheerfully answer all letters asking for special information. ## MARKET REPORT

COTTON

New Orleans. Oct. 12.—There still was considerable liquidation to contend with, but the cotton market proved susceptible to buying orders today and the market at its highest stood at 26 to 29 points over yesterday's final figures. The close was 24 to 28 points up. Favorable cables, bullish spot reports, the rise of 15 points in spots and numerous dispatches from the interior telling of extremely high prices for cotton seed were the main bullish influences of the session. In the early trading prices bulged 22 to 24 points in sympathy with a much higher Liverpool than due, but the rise was not well sustained owing to realizing sales from longs. After a ten-point reaction, the market again improved and in the early afternoon was at its highest.

Telegrams quoting cotton seed as high as $40 a ton in the interior were taken to mean that oil mill buyers were becoming convinced the crop was very short. Interior spot markets reported the highest loads of the season in several cases while the spot quotations here were a new high level.

There was a fine audience last night at the Provident Heights Baptist protracted meeting. Dr. Pace preaching a strong sermon on "The Possession of Christian People," taking his text from 1 Cor. 3:21. Interest is reported growing and great things are hoped for by members of the congregation.

Dr. Pace said that the ministry was a possession of the people and that the ministers should be made the servants, not an object of division and strife. The church was also called a possession of the people, declaring that it was to be used and not abused.

Life and death were two other possessions of Christian people that he mentioned, saying that the Christian life was the highest, noblest and best and ought to be used for all men and that death is a servant to deliver from suffering, from sorrow and to unite those dying with those gone before.

The meeting will continue through the week, at least.

Good Crowd Present at Provident Heights Protracted Meeting
There was a fine audience last night at the Provident Heights Baptist protracted meeting. Dr. Pace preaching a strong sermon on "The Possession of Christian People," taking his text from 1 Cor. 3:21. Interest is reported growing and great things are hoped for by members of the congregation.

Dr. Pace said that the ministry was a possession of the people and that the ministers should be made the servants, not an object of division and strife. The church was also called a possession of the people, declaring that it was to be used and not abused.

Life and death were two other possessions of Christian people that he mentioned, saying that the Christian life was the highest, noblest and best and ought to be used for all men and that death is a servant to deliver from suffering, from sorrow and to unite those dying with those gone before.

The meeting will continue through the week, at least.

ANOTHER TRIP MADE TO EASTERN MARKET BY SOL HIRSCHBERG

Returning about two weeks ago from an extensive buying trip to the eastern markets, Sol Hirschberg, vice president of the Goldstein-Miguel Co., said that he was very optimistic about the improvement of business not only in Texas but throughout the north and east, and that he anticipated a larger volume of business than any time in recent years and he bought goods for the big department store along this line. At that time Mr. Hirschberg spent nearly three months in the markets of the north and east, laying in supplies of fall stocks which could not fail to suit the eye of the well-dressed man and the most particular woman.

The firm which he represented was well pleased with the varied assortment which he brought back with him and which followed him soon after his return. These purchases were of the very latest and seemed to be enough to keep all Waco satisfied until the change of season necessitated another trip.

This idea has been dispelled. The immense stock of the big store on Austin avenue has been brought so low this early in the season that it is now necessary for the firm to send a buyer to the markets again. As a result they sent the man who showed such taste and judgment in the trip before, the man who thinks optimistically and correctly; the man who they know will get goods that will keep up the reputation of a company which is known everywhere as one that keeps only the latest and best selections in its stock rooms and salesrooms. Mr. Hirschberg left last night for New York.

Before going Mr. Hirschberg said that he expected to see the greatest trade season yet for the big store he represents, but that even though he bought with this idea in mind, and the extensive stock which he brought back before showed this, yet he had no idea but that he had bought enough to last for the present season. That he was mistaken in the amount he said, he has proved by the fact that he has been back in the city for the last week in the city.

Mr. Hirschberg expects to be gone about two weeks on this trip and in buying he will give special attention to the purchase of the late styles in women's wear and will again make this department of their store the fashion center. The goods which he secures on the trip will be expressed back to the home store as fast as he can buy them from the big fashion houses of the east, and the patrons of Goldstein-Miguel's will have the privilege of seeing the newest creations almost as soon as they could be seen on Fifth avenue.

Three Juries Called for Coming Week

Juries have been summoned for each of the three district courts for the week commencing next Monday, Oct. 18, and heavy fall work will be entered into in earnest by all of the judges. Judge Richard L. Munroe in the Fifty-fourth district court has already disposed of a number of criminal cases, but non-jury trials have been the rule for the last week in the district courts. The jury lists, as announced yesterday by R. V. McClain, district clerk, are as follows:

Nineteenth District Court—S. P. McCutchan, Hewitt, E. P. Wallace, E. L. Johnson, 255 North Tenth street; J. J. Balentine, Lorena, route 3; H. F. Meier, Riesel; Lee Johnson, Axtell, route 1; G. W. Plemons, Crawford, route 1; T. C. Gaddy, Eddy, route 1; Louis Lorenz, route 1; J. R. Oliver, Axtell, route 1; C. N. Willis, Waco, route 3; W. C. Cox, McGregor; T. L. Chaffin, Bruceville, route 3; W. A. Lanning, Mart; D. R. Gurley Jr., Waco, route 4; B. B. Bates, Waco; W. E. Walker, McGregor; J. A. Bledsoe, Waco, route 3; F. F. Wedekind, Crawford; A. J. Clark, H. C. Jacobs, J. W. Riviere, Third ward; L. H. Stoltz, Waco; A. R. Johnson, Mart; S. J. Thompson, Crawford, route 1; Joe N. Embry, McGregor; H. W. Tatum, Mart.

Simple Way to Have Beautiful Wavy Hair

Lustrous, fluffy, wavy hair plays an important part in the scheme of beauty. Heated iron should not be used to give the desired wavy effect, for it destroys the life, lustre and fluffiness of the hair. It is far better to use plain liquid silmerine, which curls the hair more effectively and lasts longer and at the same time keeps it beautifully soft, "light," and glossy. It is beneficial instead of harmful, and is a simple thing to apply. The liquid before retiring, using a clean tooth brush for the purpose and drawing this down the hair from root to tip. Very different from the treacherous, odorous curling iron method. Pure silmerine in liquid form may be found in drug stores and a few ounces will last a very long time. It is neither sticky nor greasy and leaves no sediment, spots or streaks. The hair will be quite manageable, no matter what the style of coiffure.

ENGINEERS REACH NO DECISION ON SEWAGE PLANT ADEQUACY

No definite action resulted from the conference yesterday between Mayor Riggins, State Sanitary Engineer V. H. Ehlers, Engineer H. E. Elrod of Dallas, and City Engineer George Gurley, when the adequacy of the plans for the disposal plant prepared by Mr. Elrod according to the specifications of the mayor was investigated. Following a short conference in the office of the mayor yesterday morning, the party went over the city studying the adequacy of the plans for a $75,000 plant from a topographical standpoint.

Afterwards in the office of City Engineer George Gurley the three engineers made a close study of the sewer system of the city from maps and plans. Another conference will be held with the mayor before a report is made. It is probable that N. Werenskiold of Dallas, who drew the plans for the filtration plant, will be asked to pass upon the plans before they are adopted by the city commission.

Mayor Riggins yesterday was still confident that a suitable plant for Waco could be built for from $60,000 to $75,000. "Other cities where so much is being spent for sewage disposal plants are working with the idea that they have got to do something big and spend a lot of money, so as to make a big noise for their city," said the mayor yesterday. "Dallas in building her plant is figuring on rebuilding the entire sewer system. My plans carefully made use of all the work we have done in the past."

"That a suitable plant could not be built for $75,000 is the opinion that has been expressed by several engineers of high standing to a special committee from the Rotary club. The conference yesterday was to see what the exact facts are and whether or not the proposed plan would be sufficient."

BAD CONDITIONS IN EAST WACO WELLS

TYPHOID CONTAMINATION IS FOUND IN 26 OUT OF 50
EXAMINED.

City Health Board Will Ask Commission to Extend Water Mains at Once.

Of fifty wells in the city examined for typhoid germs, 26 showed substantial contamination, according to a report made to the city health board at its monthly meeting yesterday by Dr. E. D. Hodges and Dr. C. E. Collins, bacteriologist and pathologist for the Providence sanitarium. Most of the wells which show contamination are in East Waco, as shown by the report, being principally on Spring, Rose and Hood streets, in a district not served by the city water mains.

The board of health will recommend to the city commission at its meeting Thursday morning that the city mains be extended at once into this territory, so as to prevent a further spread of typhoid which has been engendered from the contaminated water supply. The report of Dr. Collins states that the basis for examination of the water from the wells was an isolation of ten or more colonies basilli to each cubic centimeter of water. Where so high an isolation of B. Coll., an organization generally accompanied by the typhoid germ, is found, water is condemned as capable of producing typhoid when taken into the human body.

Several tests were made of water taken from the city mains in various parts of the city, each showing that no B. Coll. exists. Wells which showed contamination are located on Spring, Rose, Hood, Webster, Clay, Preston, Pecan and Cotton Belt streets, and at various points in the Kirkpatrick addition. The two lakes at Cameron park showed a high isolation of B. Coll. Contamination showing B. Coll. is always caused by human or animal waste in the water.

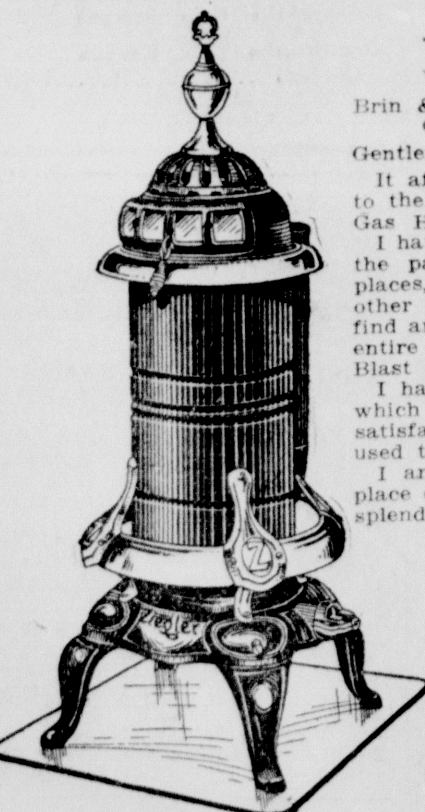

The health board will be present at the meeting of the city commission tomorrow morning, upon the invitation of Public Health Commissioner W. H. Cockcroft. The question of condemning the contaminated wells of the city and of extending the city water mains at once to supply the districts affected will come up for action at the meeting.

Calling attention to the fact that the season for a number of contagious diseases was approaching, the board yesterday formally called upon the teachers of the city schools to cooperate in reducing the danger of transmission of disease.

Gentlemen:

It affords me great pleasure to testify to the merits of the "Ziegler" Hot Blast Gas Heater purchased from you.

I have been the user of natural gas for the past ten years here and at other places, and have used practically all other makes of stoves. I have yet to find any gas stove that has given me the entire satisfaction that the "Ziegler" Hot Blast Stove has.

I have a "Ziegler" Stove in my home, which is heating three rooms in a most satisfactory manner. Last winter I used two stoves to do this same work. I am also using the "Ziegler" in my place of business and it is giving a most splendid heat and I can simply state that without a doubt the "Ziegler" Heater is the best on earth.

I find that with the "Ziegler" Stove I am able to get direct heat instantaneously and on the floor, where it is most needed. No other gas stove has ever done this for me.

Yours truly,

J. F. RIGGS.

Last Day to Park Autos on Avenue

If you want to drive your automobile down town today, run it into the curb on Austin street and leave it there all day while you are in your office, or maybe while you are spending an afternoon shopping, it will be all right. Tomorrow if you want to do the same thing, you had better take another think and move the machine around on some other street. Tomorrow will be the first day of operation of the anti-parking ordinance which was passed September 30 by the city commission upon the petition of a number of Austin avenue merchants who claimed that automobiles and vehicles standing at the curb in front of their stores was a detriment to their business.
